

SCCA Grading List 2001

by Raymond Baxter
Last Updated 17 July 2001
* denotes a provisional grade

A new ICCF grading list has been published in April. Changes to Scottish grades are incorporated in the main list below, and are based on results up to 31 December 2000. Grades shown from May onwards will apply to internationally graded games starting between 1 April and 30 September this year. A provisional grade is marked, as usual, with an asterisk.

The Grading List follows the same pattern as last year. Two grades are shown for those players with provisional ICCF grades (ie grades based on less than 30 results). If you meet a player with two grades, the one that is based on the greater number of results will be used in the calculation of your SCCA grade.

The ICCF grades are those that came into force on 1 October 2000. As well as international matches and ICCF tournaments, the following Scottish events are used in the ICCF grading: Championship, Candidates and Division 1 of the League. Twelve results are needed for an ICCF grade to be published.

The SCCA grades shown in this list take account of all results reported to the Grading Officer by 31 December 2000. The new grades will be used for games starting in 2001. All SCCA events listed in the magazine are included, except the Openings tournament. Friendly internationals are also included if the opponent's grade is known. Grades are calculated for players who have had eight or more results, provided these results were against graded players, or against ungraded players for whom it has been possible to estimate a grade.

The following members were active in 2000, but have not yet accumulated the required eight results, and therefore have no grades: J Owens and J K Stoneman.

Four years ago, the SCCA grades were increased by up to 2000 points to make them more consistent with the ICCF grades. This means that for those who play both correspondence and over-the-board chess, their correspondence grades may well be substantially higher than their over-the-board grades.

If your name is shown incorrectly, or if you are doubtful whether your grade or the number of results is accurate, please let me know by emailing: grader@scottishcca.co.uk
