Welcome to the spring edition of our 2025 magazine set. We have been blessed with plenty of sunny weather hereabouts, though that kind of thing tends not to last for long here!

I've been indisposed a bit again this time, so I still have to tidy up the website from the end of last year, and try to make sure that the magazine copy is coherent this time. If I can't manage to do that, then I'll need to review what level of contribution I can sensibly make before our AGM in May (this will probably be held using Google Meet though we'll confirm nearer the time).

The second ICCF rating list of 2025 is analysed by our grader Alistair Maxwell, who reports no new norms or titles this time..

Our main article pays tribute to Ken McAlpine, whose 80th birthday falls due on April 11th. It'll be nip and tuck whether this magazine is issued before that date but, in any event, Ken deserves our fulsome thanks for his wonderful playing career (including 3 consecutive Scottish Championship wins the 1970s). Nowadays he keeps his winning habit going via the 100 Club!

We also cover the SCCA Best Game Prize for 2024, judged this year by GM John Pugh of England. The three winners each annotate their games for us.

Awani Kumar contributes two articles this time. The first is based on the magazine number 169 (which is the square of 13 – giving him some magic numbers to play with); and the second pays tribute to IM David Levy for his development work in computer chess worldwide.

International Secretary David Kilgour files his report, and John Hawkes contributes some Chess Art posters which have their roots in the Bauhaus movement.

Good to see the decent level of activity and enterprising play from our small membership once more!

Many thanks to those of you who have contributed articles, done research, and wrestled with the mechanics of bringing another magazine on to the streets!

Enjoy the read!

SCCA Membership

Annual: £10/year buys you entry to all SCCA domestic events and friendly international matches, plus 4 quarterly e-magazines.

Life: £100 gets you annual membership for the rest of your chess-hobbying days.

Patron: £125 (+ any further donation you care to make) gets you life membership and your name on something commemorative.

SCCA 100 Club

The 100 Club has been and continues to be an important revenue-earner for our Association, with many long-standing subscribers.

However, in recent years we have lost a number of subscribers through death and replacing them has been a challenge that, as yet, we have been unable to fully meet.

Could you help us address our challenge by agreeing to take one, two, three or more units each month?

Responsibility for the 100 Club rests with our Treasurer, Ian Whittaker. Units cost £1 with some members taking one unit while others take as many as 10 units per month. From the Association's perspective paying by Bankers Order is most convenient.

If you don't already subscribe to the 100 club please consider if you can help the SCCA by making contact with Ian to sign up for some units (contact details below).

ICCF 2nd World Team Cup

On behalf of ICCF, I am pleased to announce the 2nd World Team Cup.

All member federations (MF) are invited to enter this event played on the ICCF webserver. Either may enter teams:

1. Individual National Federations
2. Groups of Federations (For example, a Benelux team representing Belgium, Luxembourg, and the Netherlands)
3. A team representing Isolated Players

Note: A National Federation may only be represented once; for example, if a Benelux team took part, then Belgium, Luxembourg, and the Netherlands would not field individual teams.

Each national federation may enter one team. The event is free to enter.

Member Federation should express their wish to participate not later than July 1st, 2025.

A tournament is played as a series of matches. Each round begins after the previous round is completed.

All players must be full members of the federation they represent or be registered on the ICCF server for the country of the federation they represent for the duration of the tournament.

Teams will comprise 20 players.

Any number of players may be replaced during the tournament.

It should be noted that any player may only play on a single board (so each team must comprise 20 different players).

Time control is Triple-block, 302 days with 51 days initial bank and 1 day increment for the first 50 moves at each round.

The schedule is as follows (if there are 4 rounds):

1. 1st round. Start date 15-August-2025. A team that wins a match is promoted to the next round.
2. 2nd round. Start date 15-August-2026. A team that wins a match is promoted to the next round.
3. Semifinals. Start date 15-August-2027. A team that wins a match is promoted to the final; a team that loses a match plays 3rd-place-match.

4. Final and 3rd-place-match. Start date 15-August-2028.

In case there are three rounds start dates are 15-August-2025, 15-August-2026 and 15-August-2027.

In each round, matches will comprise either two or three teams, dependent on overall entries.

A team that wins a match receives 2 match points; a team that loses a match receives 0 match points; if it is a draw, both teams receive 1 match point.

The winner is defined on a number of match points. In case 2 or 3 teams of a group have the same number of match points, a number of total points scored by all team members is the first tie break rule. If these figures are the same, a team with the lowest average rating (at the moment of a start of a match) will be promoted to the next round.

A whole cycle will be played in 3 or 4 years as a maximum.

The three top teams are awarded medals/certificates.

At the beginning of the first round, all teams receive their start numbers according to an average rating of the entered team, which represents its national federation in rating list 2025/3.

I kindly ask you to reply to this invitation no later than July 1st to let me know how many teams are ready to participate in this 2nd World Team Cup. I would appreciate it very much if you inform me whether your NF intends to participate or not. Following this, the deadline for team details will be July 15th, with a start date of August 15, 2025.

Confirmations, team details, and any queries should be sent to Tournament Organizer Giraldo Menéndez Rodríguez (giraldomenendez@gmail.com)

Giraldo Menéndez      Tournament Organiser

(Interested SCCA members should contact David Kilgour, International Secretary).

José Daniel Finkelstein Memorial Team Tournament for players rated <2300

ICCF is glad to announce the VIII ICCF Team Tournament for players rated <2300 – here in memoriam José Daniel Finkelstein.

All ICCF member federations (that are not currently suspended) are invited to enter their teams to this event, which will be played on the ICCF webserver on two rounds: semi-final and final.

The first three teams in the final will receive medals.

Each federation may enter two teams.

All players on the team must be rated <2300 on the ICCF rating list 2025/2 or on the current FIDE list. In addition, all players must be full members of the federation they represent or be registered on the ICCF server for the country of the federation they represent for the duration of the tournament.

The preliminaries will start on July 1st, 2025.

There will be 6 players in each team. A maximum of 3 players may be replaced during the tournament.

Further tie-breaking procedures:

- Semifinal: after standard tie-breaks in ICCF rules, the team with the highest average rating on the commencement of play;
- Final: after standard tie-breaks in ICCF rules, the team with the lowest average rating on the commencement of play.

The right to be promoted from the semifinal shall be determined by the ICCF Non-Title Tournaments Commissioner and approved by the Executive Board at the start of the tournament. The intention will be for a 13 Team final.

The entry fee will be at the rate of € 4 per player, i.e. € 24 per team. There will be no further entry fee for the final.

Time control will be Triple Block (Duration of Tournament: 700 days; Initial Clock: 50 days; Initial Bank: 50 days; Increment: 5 days).

Please note – without guaranteed time in the semi-final and in the final with guaranteed time.

Team entries have to be sent by the national federations to the Non-Title Tournament Commissioner Giorgio Ruggeri Laderchi (nttc.iccf@gmail.com) not later than June 10th, 2025.

No replacement or board change will be allowed after that date, unless exceptional circumstances occur.

All entries should include the following details:

- board order
- name and ICCF code of the players
- name, ICCF code and e-mail address of the Team Captain

José Daniel Finkelstein (05.02.1949 – 07.06.2022)

He learned about postal chess in LADAC (Argentina National League) and never left it, until the end of his life.

As a player, he achieved the titles of National Master in 1995 and International Master in 1998.

His most important work was as Arbiter of numerous tournaments, both national and international, being Captain of the Argentine Olympic Team on one occasion, and working on the LADAC Board for many years, as General Tournament Director first and as Vice President later.

In ICCF he was the TTC in the first years of the webserver.

He obtained the titles of National Arbiter in 1990 and ICCF International Arbiter in 1996, achieving his highest distinction when ICCF awarded him the Bertl von Massow Silver Medal (in 2005) for his leadership work over so many years.

A cruel disease (diabetes) attacked his body in his last years,

SCCA AGM 2025

The next SCCA Executive Committee meeting will take place on Sunday May 11, 2025 at 2pm, followed by the AGM at 4pm.

Both meetings will be held online, probably via Google Meet. The Executive Committee is limited to committee members.

The AGM is open to all SCCA members. It will be advertised on the SCCA website and <https://www.facebook.com/scottishcca> in advance for those wishing to attend,

2025/2 Grading List

By Alistair Maxwell

The second ICCF grading list of 2025 is published and new grades are based on 3 months' results reported between 1 Jan and 31 Mar 2025. The grades will apply to internationally graded games starting between 1 Apr and 30 Jun 2025.

No titles were awarded in the period but after the last list was published Robert Montgomery advised that he obtained an IM norm in the Dobri Semov Memorial tournament. Well done, Robert!

There were 2 deletions due to inactivity and no new names.

The most significant rating moves were Ian Foote (+45), Robert Bruce (+36), James Murray (+29), Robert Gilbert (+21), Murdo MacDonald and Clive Murden (+20).

New games centurions were Carlos Almarza Mato (2700+) and Clive Murden (700+). Highest recorded games this quarter were Carlos Almarza Mato (51), Iain Sneddon (49), Robert Bruce (41), and Raymond Burrige (20).

You need to complete 12 ICCF-eligible games to obtain a rating. Fixed ratings are based on at least 30 games and only these are shown below. Rating changes are denoted by arrows. Email grader@scottishcca.co.uk if you have any queries.

12th Annual Best Game Prize

by GM John Pugh

[Ed –this year we invited GM John Pugh of England to judge our competition. John is unable to supply a photograph, so you'll have to think of him as the Masked Mediator...]

John is a 74 year old retired property lawyer living in the centre of Norwich with his wife & daughter.

He has been playing correspondence chess since 1997 and won the GM title in 2006. At the present time he is playing in the European Championship Candidates & World Championship semi-finals.

John found it difficult to pick a winner as all 3 games were of roughly equal quality and another judge could very easily have chosen a completely different order.

Games A & B were similar with a slow build up on the kingside against a King's Indian type structure relying on White's space advantage & better posted pieces.

Third Place

White: Price, Derek (2019)
Black: Mackintosh, Iain (2410)
 English Opening, Four Knights Variation [A28]
 SCCA Championship 2024–25
 [Notes by Iain Mackintosh]

In recent years, it's been good to see Derek fight his way through the Championship qualifying rounds and enter the final stages.

7.0-0	Nc6
8.d5	Ne7
9.b4

The main alternative is 9.Ne1 when Black seeks to carry out the main idea of king side expansion. This has been the main battle ground in the KID with White playing on the queen side and Black countering on the king side, often sacrificing to force home a mating attack on White's king. The idea behind playing b4 is to play on the queen side but also to shut down Black's kingside play before it gets going.

14.Nxe4

An alternative is:

14.Ng5 Nf5 15.g4 giving the initiative to Black after 15...e3 16.Nge4 Qh4 17.gxf5 Nf6 18.Bxe3 Nxe4 19.Nxe4 Qxe4 20.fxg6 Qxg6+ 21.Kh1 Qe4+ 22.f3 Qf5 Although the position is level, it is not what I was looking for.

14... Nf6

15.Bd3 Nf5

Exchanging knights on e4 may be better than the move played. White has an advantage in either case but the exchange may limit the advantage.

16.Neg5 h6

17.Ne4 Qe7

18.Ng3 Qf7

19.h3 Bd7

20.Qc2 Nh7

21.Ne4 Nf6

The last few moves have seen a bit of manoeuvring White waiting to get the pieces co-ordinated before attacking; and Black is trying to cover any breaks and stay in the game. White is better but not yet winning. It is worth noting that although White's queen side play has not led to a breakthrough, it has limited the scope of any Black counterplay on the queen side and the pieces are limited in where they can move. The kingside is usually where Black counters but it is White who has the initiative here. Which means the strategy of not allowing Black to take the initiative on the kingside has been effective.

22.g4 Nxe4

23.Bxe4 Kh8

24.Qd2

24.gxf5?? gxf5 25.Bd3 e4 would throw away the whole advantage.

24... Ne7

25.Kh1 Rg8

26.Rg1 Raf8

27.Rg2

White's pieces are well co-ordinated. The rook on g2 protects the f2 pawn; the rook on a3 protects the knight and threatens to move to the kingside if required. The bishops are a constant threat, backed up by the queen. The white-squared bishop also protects the knight. The knight is blocking the f file and can quickly move into an attacking position. Black's pieces on the other hand, lack squares and can only try to react to White's plans.

27... Qe8

28.Qe2 Qc8

29.Rb3 Rf7

30.Kg1

The King moves to g1 to allow White to move the knight, bishop and queen without giving Black any counterplay on f2.

30... Qe8

31.Bc2 Rf8

32.Nd2 Qf7

33.Ne4

g5??

Should we call this a blunder? It is hard to suggest any good moves for Black, he can perhaps stay in the game by retreating the bishop to c8 or the queen to e8. However, it weakens the kingside and doesn't change the outcome.

34.Qd3 Qg6

35.Bb1 Qf7

35...Bc8 36.Qe2 Qf7 37.Qd2 Ng6

38.Nxg5 hxg5 39.Qxg5 Bf6 40.Qh6+

Qh7 41.Bxg6 Qxh6 42.Bxh6

Black's position is hopeless: two pawns down and no counterplay to speak of..

36.Nxg5 hxg5

37.Qh7#

I don't believe that Black blundered here - I think he sportingly allowed the mate. I was pleased with this game for a number of reasons. As I said at the start of the game it sealed my first IM norm. Secondly I felt I was always in control and never in any kind of trouble Which is how I like to play the game but seldom get the opportunity!!

White: Beecham, C. Richard (2377)

Black: Pheby, Ian (2391)

EFCC 60 Ruby/Diamond, 2022

King's Indian Classical [E94]

[Notes by Richard Beecham]

My opponent, Ian Pheby, is a legend in his own lifetime and a thoroughly nice chap. Ian could have been a GM if he hadn't played so many games and events in recent seasons. For example, he played in 8 events in 2023, 15 in 2022 and 24 in 2021. He has even had a chess tournament named after him!

The English Correspondence Chess Federation has also honoured him for his long and dedicated service. Ian has held several posts with the ICCF having started in 2006 as a tournament director and then later as a tournament organiser. Ian became an International Arbiter in 2009.

In 2010, he was involved in the administration of special leave while in 2011 he became Direct Entry Commissioner for a six year period.

He is also a member of the Tournament Directors Committee having taken on that role during 2014.

Ian has also been tournament organiser of the Veterans World Cups 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12. He also received the Bertl von Massow Silver Medal in 2015 and the Gold Medal in 2021 for his services to the ICCF. In England with the EFCC, Ian has also held a variety of posts since 2003 including Games Archivist, International Secretary, Treasurer since 2020 and President since 2017. Ian also regularly finds time to play correspondence chess at a high level and was awarded his SIM title in 2004. At that time his rating was 2602 having reached a maximum of 2621.

Our game here was played in the Diamond/Ruby English Federation for Correspondence Chess event to celebrate the Diamond Anniversary of the EFCC which was formed on December 1st, 1962.

1.d4 Nf6
2.c4 d6
3.Nc3 Nbd7
1.Rh2 Qd8

What wizardry is being woven here? I cannot figure out what Ian is up to. What is his plan? After a lot of head scratching, I came up with....

I always enjoy the first few moves, it's the sort of bottom-sniffing,

4.e4 e5
5.Nf3 g6
6.Be2 Bg7
7.0-0 0-0
8.Be3 Qe7
9.Qc2 c6
10.d5

I was unsure about this move at the time. The move 10. Rd1 is recommended in an old King's Indian book from Russia but I went into other reference books, kicked some twigs around the garden and racked my brains for the correct move to play. In the end, I tossed a coin!

10... h6N.

The English GM, Gawain Jones, who is an expert in the Kings Indian, has played this position many times. As an example, he played 10..c5 in the PRO League KO stage (Amsterdam Mosquitos - London Towers) against Loek van Wely (2668). After 10..c5 11.Ne1 Ne8 12 Nd3 f5 13.ef5 gf5 14.f4 Nef6 15 fe5 Ne5 16 Ne5 de5 17.Bg5 Qe8 18 Nb5 the position is equal. Another possibility is 10.. Ng4 which turned out badly for Black from the game between Gabriel Sagissian (2677) and Jaime Santos Latoso (2549) cf. 10...Ng4 11.Bg5 f6 12.Bd2 c5 13 Nb5 Nb8 14 b4 Na6 15.Ne1 cb4 16.f3 Nh6 17.Nd3 f5 18.c5 de5 19.de6 and White is winning.

11.h3 c5
12.g3 Kh8

13.Kg2

The idea of 12.g3 and 13.Kg2 followed by Rh1 came from playing through many games of Alpha Zero who has had numerous wins against Stockfish with this plan.

13... Ng8
14.Bd3 Ndf6
15.a4

Now that the threat of f5 has gone I can take a look at the queenside and gain more space with ..a5 etc.

15... a5
I was expecting 15 ..b6 16.a5 ba5 17.Ra5 a6 18.Rb1 with nice play on the queenside.

16.Rae1
With the centre closed the precise move order is not critical since there is very little that Ian can do to prevent me from carrying out my long-term plan.

16... Bd7
17.Bd2 Rae8
18.Qc1

Leela suggests 18. Rh1 Nh7 19. Rh2 Bf6 20. Qc1 b6 21. Rg1 Rd8 22. Kf1 which is an interesting concept.

18... Nh7
19.Rh1 b6
20.Nb5 Bc8

Um, he said stroking his chin, I am not terribly impressed with 20.. Bc8. Ian plays rather slowly due to the number of games he plays and at this point I discover horse-like qualities and manage to fall asleep standing up waiting for a move!

22.Kh1 Bd7
23.Rg1

I spent some time on 23.g4 g5 24. Nd6 Bg4 25. hg4 Qd6 but I put my sensible trousers back on and went for 23. Rg1. White must not play 23. Nd6 due to the moves 23. Qf6 24.Ne8 Qf3+ 25.Kg1 when a) 25..Qd3; b) 25. ..Be8 or c) .. Re8 are all favourable to Black.

23... Bxb5
24.axb5 Re7
25.g4 Qe8
26.Be2 Ra7

27.g5!

A game changer. A ripsnorter of a move. This is the point when I said to myself, '..this game is a win..'. Sometimes you feel you couldn't pull a greased stick out of a pig's bottom yet there are other times when you could tell the dog to go to the bread bin and make me a sandwich - well this was that moment!

35.Nf5

This is a interesting position.

Stockfish gives 35.f4 ef4 36 Bf4 Nc8 37.Nf3 Re8 38.e5 and evaluates the position as +3.58. If you play through my line in the game to move 38, Stockfish gives +4.80. Which Stockfish is correct? By the way, Leela, Stoofvlees, Berserk and Komodo all suggest 35.Nf5.

35... Nf8

Both 35. Nf5 36.ef5 e4 37 Be4 Bd4 38.Bc3 and 35. .. gf5 36.ef5 e4 37.Be4 Bd4 38.Qf3 end in lost positions, as does 35 ..Qf8 when the simple 36 Ng7 Qg7 37.f4 wins.

36.Bc3 Qc7

37.Qh4

White is looking at plans of Bd1 and sacrificing on h5.

37... Kh7

38.f4 Nc8

39.Bd1

Also good was 39. Ng3 Rh8 40. f5 Nd7 41. f6 Bf8 42. Nh5!

Knight Tour on 169 Cell Board

By Awani Kumar
Lucknow, India

SCCA Magazine has come out with its 169th issue and let us celebrate it with some interesting knight tours on  $13 \times 13 (= 169)$  cell board. There can't be a magic tour on  $13 \times 13$  board and, in general, on any odd-by-odd board. Figure 1 has the first 16 even numbers arranged in  $4 \times 4$  magic square formation having magic constant 68. Figure 2 has the multiples of 13 arranged in middle row. The move segments are alternately below and above the middle row up to 115 and readers are urged to improve it. Figure 3 to Figure 5 has the square numbers  $1^2, 2^2, 3^2, \dots, 13^2$ , namely, 1, 4, 9, ..., 169 in knight path. Figure 6 has the consecutive square numbers along the middle row.

Figure 7 and Figure 8 are diagonal tours of knight with consecutive square numbers in knight and zebra {2, 3} path respectively. Figure 9 has the square numbers in zebra path in zig-zag way. Figure 10 and Figure 11 have the consecutive square numbers in giraffe {1, 4} path. Christmas tree is always fascinating. The line joining the square numbers delineate Christmas tree in Figure 12.

Happy Birthday IM David Levy

By Awani Kumar
Lucknow, India

Scotland has produced some very strong chess players, such as GM Jonathan Rowson – three-time British champion and GM Matthew Turner but IM David Neil Laurence Levy stands on a different pedestal. He is noted for his involvement with computer chess and artificial intelligence, and as the founder of the Computer Olympiads and the Mind Sports Olympiad. He has written more than 40 books on chess and computers and has been a central figure in computer chess practically since the term was invented. His interest in computer chess was triggered by an incidence in 1968. Levy met John McCarthy, an artificial intelligence (AI) pioneer, in a party hosted by Donald Michie, another (AI) expert, and they played a game of chess which Levy won. Perhaps McCarthy was unaware of Levy's strength – he had already won London Junior Chess Championship twice – in 1965 and 1966 and later won Scottish Chess Championship in 1968. Nevertheless, McCarthy took the loss seriously and believing in AI prowess responded that 'you might be able to beat me, but within 10 years there will be a computer program that can beat you.' Levy suggested they bet on it and he won the bet by defeating Chess 4.7 in a six-game match by a score of 4.5–1.5 in 1978. Levy became a professional chess writer in 1971 and co-authored several books with GM Raymond Keene. Their professional relationship grew personal when Levy married Keene's sister later. In 1974,

Levy played a key role in organising World Computer Chess Championship – won by Soviet Union program Kaissa. In 1977, he co-founded the International Computer Chess Association (ICCA) rechristened as International Computer Games Association (ICGA) in 2002. From 1986 to 1992 and from 1999 to 2018, Levy was its president. ICGA organised a symposium to celebrate 50th anniversary of World Computer Chess Championship in 2024 and Levy delivered a keynote address: My Fifty Years of Computer Chess. Chess programs have gone from 1600 ELO (1974) to 3600 ELO (today) and Levy has played a pivotal role in this journey. Levy won Loebner Prize twice; in 1997 and again in 2009. The prize is given in the field of Artificial Intelligence. Levy has varied interests and has published a book 'Love and Sex with Robots'. It is not a fictional narration but based on his PhD thesis which he defended successfully at Maastricht University, Netherland in 2007. He is concerned with ethical treatment of robots and has forecasted that marriages with robots will be legalised around 2050!! Levy was born on 14 March 1945 and the author wishes to celebrate his 80th birth anniversary with interesting knight tours on 80 cell board. Figure 1 and Figure 2 are magic tours of knight on 8x10 board. Sum of move numbers in each row and each column is 324 and 405 respectively. Figure 3 shows magic tours on 4x20 board. Sum of move numbers in each row and each column is 810 and 162 respectively. Possibility of tours having bi-magic lines are always fascinating. Sum of the squares of move numbers in each row adds up to 43070 and 43870 which is 43470 +/- 400. Readers are urged to improve upon it.

Chess with computer is ubiquitous now and almost everyone from amateur to world champion relies and relishes computer game/analysis. This was not the case some half a century ago and Levy has played a key role in bringing this transformation. We love, adore and admire IM David Levy and wish him a very HAPPY BIRTHDAY. May he be blessed with long life, health and happiness. Amen.

Vito Campanella

By Iain
Mackintosh

Vito Campanella (1932-2014) was an Italian-Argentine painter, known for working in the Surrealism style.
Born: 17 October 1932, Monopoli, Italy
Died: 26 December 2014 (age 82 years), Buenos Aires, Argentina
